Permission to Verbally Discuss Protected Health Information with Family and Friends

- Completion of this form is optional -

We have established a process that allows you to tell us who we may talk with about your health care. This includes appointment and scheduling information, lab and test results, treatment information and billing information.

How can I give others permission to get verbal information about me?

Complete the Permission to Verbally Discuss Protected Health Information form on the attached page to let us know whom we may speak to about your information. Check the appropriate boxes to indicate what information we may discuss. you may also send us a letter with this information.

Does this mean that you will not speak to anyone I haven't specifically names on the form?

No. If permitted by law, Premier Eye Care may speak to other individuals involved in your care (or payment for that care).

How is the information on the form used?

Any time your designated person calls or makes a request on your behalf, we will verify the individual has your permission to receive the information and then we will share the information.

What are some examples of when this might be useful?

- If an individual wants to share information with spouse or significant other
- If an elderly patient wants an adult child to help understand medical treatment instructions
- If an adult child is helping with billing questions
- If a friend is helping a patient with health issues
- If a college student wants information shared with a parent
- If an adult child calls to find out his/her parent's appointment time

What if I change my mind?

You can change or revoke (stop) this process at any time by writing to us at the address shown below.

What happens if I don't complete this form?

We will continue to protect your private health information as required by law.

Can the person I designate also get copies of my medical records?

No, they can only receive verbal information. To get copies of medical records, complete a separate Authorization form available by contacting the clinic at the phone number listed below.

Where do I send the completed form or any changes?

Please send or fax the completed form or any changes to the location listed below. Note: If you need to obtain copies of your health records, please contact the office using the address or phone number listed below.
